

About Us

The company laid the foundations as Mozlar Celik Halat in 1999, in Konya by Kalip MOZ, who has 33 years experience in the sector.

Our company, which started business with a small trading company, expanded his product and service network, changed his corporate identity to Mozlar Çelik Halat ve Kaldırma,Çektirme Ekipmanları San. ve Tic. Ltd. Şti. in 2007. With his new place in Büsan Industry Site in 2012 continues to serve to Konya Industry.

Our company provides pressed sling and spliced sling by hand from 3mm up to 28mm. Additionally, consisting hundreds of products; shank hooks, safety equipments, chain, sling, polyester sling, steel wire rope equipments, construction machinery and tractor seats, chain hoist, transpallets .. etc. Leader manufacturer companies do pioneering of all technological developments in their branches, set the standards in the sector according to needs of users and requirements of the applications.

Our company keep the large part of the suppliers products in stock and offers the service directly to users. All superior qualification, quality and certified products, which are preferred by many public and private sector companies and leader companies of industry, be offered the service to users by the experienced staff network.

Mozlar Çelik Halat created unprecedented competition with principled price and quality policy extended permitted by economic condition since its establishment. In this way, very large user group found an opportunity to objectively compare the prices and quality of all the products and choice of alternative products.